The President wasn't able to open the meeting as there was no one there, infact he wasn't there either

There were no members or guests in attendance

Apologies :

There were no apologies although the President had received several responses to the October Newsletter and was pleased to learn that Beryl Jago , Alastair.&.Aileen Masson Jill Ferry. David & Ann Walker and Judith Crowe were safe and well.

Presidents report :

The President was surprised and pleased to learn from our treasurer that although Miss Piggy, having been held in captivity by our previous Treasurer for most of the year and having been subjected also to two lockdowns , was able to raise over 100€ which will go towards our December annual presentation to the Management and Staff of the Kyriad for the excellent service they have given us during those times in the year we were able to hold our meetings . (To be presented at a suitable date)

Once again on behalf of the members the President has forwarded the following message to the Management and staff of the Kyriad :

Dear Delphine , Sadly once again and much to our regret, I find myself on behalf of our members having to accept that we will not be able to take advantage of our regular luncheon at your tables this week. We sincerely hope that the action taken by your government in November, will bring about the possibility of once again being with you and you work colleagues for our December meeting

Friendly regards

Royston Watkins

Sadly it looks like we will not be able to share tables for our December luncheon or indeed for January 2021

This Coronavirus has a lot to answer for, apart from everything else, it has also brought about the lost opportunities for the continued fellowship between friends and acquaintances of our Club. Let us not lose that close relationship built up over the past 5/6 years, why not send me an update on how you are ? for me to be able to relate it to members in my next Newsletter.

Doesn't take a lot of effort to send an e.mail
